“ Marie and family, I am so sorry about Ray but be comforted that his suffering is over. I will always remember his smile and laughter. He had the most energy of all the cousins no matter what his age! Thinking of you all, Joyce

“ Ray was a very funny and kind man. I remember as a child thinking he was Dick van Dyke. He made us laugh and always had something interesting to show us kids whether it be a magic trick or a wooden project he was working on. He will surely be missed My Condolences go out to Marie and their kids. Much love, Michael He will surely be missed.
