“ I only saw your Dad a few times and each was a fun experience. We had a ball fishing even if we didn't caught any keepers - So kind hearted and full of love of life. I will miss him and the stories his daughter Debby told me of him. Like sand that runs through our fingers - life is so fragile. May God hold him in his arms and bless his soul as he was a good husband, father and friend to all.. With a heavy heart I say good-bye and I will see you in the gates of heaven. Love D. Brown
