“ Mr. Curtis was known by my family for many years. From playing softball with my dad, to being the umpire at many games I played, to being the insurance agent for my family. He will be greatly missed. To Mary and the entire family, I pray God's peace unto you and may He give you comfort as you go through this season of bereavement.

“ Our condolences go out to all members of this family. Curtis was a fun loving, caring, calm and sometimes quiet individual, and an interesting conversationalist. I will always remember the happy beach times of our youth as well as a family reunion several years ago. He will be missed. All of you are in our prayers.

“ I would like to give my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Raymond Jagers. The loss of a loved one in death can cause much sadness and pain. Many have received comfort by remembering that the Bible reassures us of God's keen interest in consoling those who are "brokenhearted" and "crushed in spirit", according to Psalm 34:18. We can all look forward to the time promised when "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore". - Revelation 21:4
