“ Becky, you have been in my thoughts and prayers all weekend. Carl did the music for my wedding in 1995. He was one of the sweetest people I have ever known, and every time I came home he had a huge hug for me. May God give you peace during this time.

“ I don't even know what to say. I watched my parents bury a child, Becky and they have never been the same. In truth, none of us are. I remember Carl in cowboy boots strutting around SDBC, I remember him playing soccer at Harris Field with my brothers, I remember his father Ray being there coach...and today they are together again. Jason and Amanda, your brother will always be a part of you even in his absence. Hug your mom a lot...she will need it. Becky, tell your father that I will never forget my mother's face as we stood in the ICU room of Northwestern Memorial in Chicago as we said goodbye to my sister Beka, telling me that Pastor Coeuy had phoned her and the words of comfort he provided meant a great deal to her. My heart hurts for all of you...I'm wiping away tears as I write this. I'll leave you with words someone wrote to me in a letter after my sister died. "Imagine stepping onto a shore and finding it's Heaven. Imagine taking hold of a hand and finding it's God's hand. Imagine breathing new air and finding it's celestial. Imagine feeling invigorated and finding its immortality. Imagine passing from storms & tempest to an unknown calm. Imagine waking up and finding it's home." Love to the Tranthem's, the Coeuy's and all those who will miss Carl Tranthem. Love, Jennifer Stewart on behalf of the Wes and Diane Stewart family

“ I have such wonderful memories of Carl--his strength of character, his sense of humor, his deep bond with people. Some of my favorite memories of Carl were during the time he was my student at Colonial Christian School. He was always chasing the girls on the playground--especially my daughter, Jill. He & Jill have continued to have a special relationship through the years. I remember when he was recovering from Guillain Barre' Syndrom & was in a wheelchair. He was so tough. He wouldn't stay in the wheelchair in my classroom. He insisted on putting his wheelchair to one side & holding on to desks for support so he could walk around our classroom unassisted. I would insist that he use the wheelchair to go outside for recess. One day while trying to help him maneuver his wheelchair over the step outside our classroom so he could go to the playground, I accidently tipped him over landing him on the hard jagged rocks at the bottom on the step. I was in tears, but Carl just managed to get up, brushed off his knobby knees and laughed about it. That's my Carl! I miss him. My prayers go out to you, Beck. Love, Sandy Achterberg Burton <{}><

“ Dear Becky, My deepest condolences to you and your family for your tragic loss. I was so sad and shocked to receive the news from my mom, Mary Ann McConn. I visited mom several times a year, and Carl would always come down and visit. Whenever I walked the dog in the neighborhood, he'd always stop and say hello and we'd chat for a few minutes. He was such a kind and gentle soul - always with a smile and never a negative word about anything or anyone. I will honor his memory by trying to live my life by the example he set in the way he lived his. We thought very highly of Carl, and had great admiration for him. I know he loved his family, and he was loved in return. He will be missed by all of us and never forgotten. Sincerely, Elizabeth Warren

“ Dear Becky, I never met Carl; but I know you and I know the amazingly love you have for your family. I also know the unlimited love that a mother has for her children. I am so sorry for your loss. Only God loves more than us. I do not know why God needed Carl to come home now. But I am glad that God had the grace to send Bobby to carry you through until you can hold Carl again. God bless you both and all of our family. I will pray for peace in your lives.

“ Dearest Becky, When we learned of Carls death ,a flood of memories came back to us.Memories of a time when Carl so proudly carried and presented Amanda as a baby to his church family and friends . Also of a bithday party for Amanda in your back yard in Homestead when Amanda was two. Memories of a son who loved his mother dearly , who had an infectious laugh and a spirit filled with joy. I do not believe that people are joined together by chance, but by a loving God who knows who and what we need.From getting to know your father by him preaching at my son Phillips funeral ,to becoming members of the church, to being to being surrounding by the love of your family Carl,Jason Amanda and Ray your wonderful parents and brother. He placed you in our lives, you were such a comfort to me. Please allow all the people that love you to help you through. Most of all reach out to the Lord. Right now it is difficult to see past the pain. But there will come a day when your heart will be flooded with precious memories and tjhen that final journey we will take to be in Heaven with our sons. I love you and I will be only a phone call away.

“ Dear Becky and Family, I'm so sorry for your grief. Hold hands TIGHT with Our Lord, and you will receive the grace you need so much. My son Greg "moved to Heaven" 10 years ago at the age of 26 yrs. I'm sure he has already introduced himself to Carl and is showing him around! When the grief gets so bad Becky, listen for your sons voice. You will be comforted. Just knowing that our boys are ecstatic living in HEAVEN will continue to fill our spirit. Picture Carl with unending joy doing all the things he likes and MORE! God Our Father called our boys home first. His plan is for all of us to be together again....and WE WILL. I'm here for you Becky. Love, Kris

“ After my son Greg "moved to Heaven" my sister sent me this heartfelt verse. For MANY days I would read this, and regain the courage to take another step. I now keep it in a shadow box frame, with a rose that Greg's best military buddy gave me. From one mother to another dear Becky..... God's Lent Child I'll lend you awhile a child of mine God said for you to cherish while he lives, and mourn for when he's dead. It may be one one or two years, or forty two or three, but will you, till I call him back take care of him for me. He'll bring you his lovely memories as solace for grief. I cannot promise he will stay, since ALL from earth return, but the lessons that are taught below, I want this lent child to learn. I've looked the whole world over in search of teachery true, and from the ones who crown life's lanes I have chosen YOU. Will you give him all your love? Nor think the labor vain? Nor hate me when I come to take this lent child back again? I fancied that I heard them say Dear Lord, thy will be done, for the joy thy child will bring, the risk of grief will run. We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may. And for the happiness we've known, forever grateful we will stay. But should thy angels call for him much sooner than we'd planned, we'll brave the grief that comes to us, and try to understand.
