“ Dear Sarah and Isabella, I am so sorry for your loss I know how much Ray meant to you. When i saw you guys you two were the most down to earth people and completely in love. Not the fake love like in the movies but true love and i always hoped and still do that i would find someone where i could have that kind of love. I know that it is hard for you because of the love you guys had, but with strength and comfort given by God you will be able to get through this. My thoughts and prayers are with you and Isabella as you go through this difficult time in both of your lives.

“ Dearest Sarah, Bella, and Ray's Family, My heart goes out to you all. I know he loved you all very much. And Sarah, I know he loved you and was looking forward to spending the rest of his life growing old and raising Bella together. He loved her very much. You two always were smiling and you could see the love in your eyes and that love will always be there. Ray's death is a great loss to everyone who knew him, and everyone will be affected differently from losing the man they all loved, the beloved husband-to-be, father, son, brother, and friend. Each will have to cope to the best they can. Do not lash out, but come together for the love of Ray, for none of us knows exactly God's purpose for taking Ray so soon. “ Vincent, Mary Clare and Family, Words cannot express the deep sorrow we feel for the loss of Raymond. I will never forget all the great memories during the summers and at family weddings. Running back and forth from Brierly Lane to Ball Avenue, swimming in our pool, playing UNO, catching lightning bugs, playing softball and badminton...I can go on and on. We were all like brothers and sisters and had so much fun together. Raymond grew into such a wonderful young man and will be greatly missed by so many friends and family. Know that when that "ray" of sunshine comes through the clouds, that is just his way to show his love and protection over you all. Please know we are thinking of you all every day and wish we can be there. We are only a phone call or email away, so please don't hesitate to reach out at any time. We love you very much. “ I new Ray through my best friend Sarah. And though I only spoke with him a few times I know that it takes a very genuine and open heart to bring a woman and her child into your life. Whether for want of family or love or both Ray fulfilled a need not many are willing to endure. That of recless abandon to those he held dear in spite of many struggles. life is about enduring, and Ray will live along with those of us who walked with him and the ones he loved in life.

“ I only knew Ray through my best friend Sarah. And from the few times i talked to him i know he had a generous and open heart. to take in a woman and her child and love them as his own takes a very unique person who knows the value of life, no matter how it comes to him. i had planned to walk my friend sarah down the isle on her wedding day, and as she is like my sister i would not have agreed if the man was anything less than Ray. take care brother, you will be missed. and we will all walk with the memory of your love and friendship until our time comes.

“Dearest Ray, You are an angel in heaven touching all hearts of those who knew you by your genuine love and by dear, fond memories of the times spent with you. All of us who knew you, no matter if the time was short or long, feel your loss beyond measures! Your spirit will live on forever and be cherished in the hearts of all who knew you. My experience knowing you was one of an adoring, kind-hearted, sweet, selfless fiancée to Sarah and a fun-loving, kind, patient, and caring father to Isabella. Also, I have heard stories of how you were like a son to Sarah's mom, Jeannie. While Jeannie's rallied breast cancer, you have been an encourager to her and always by her side in the most precious ways. Ray, you truly lived life as an angel and now must have a special place and purpose as an angel in heaven. Ray, you were an incredible father to Isabella, fiancée to Sarah, like a son to Jeannie and your legacy will live in their hearts forever. Ray, you taught Isabella about what being a God-sent and awesome dad is really all about. By Isabella sharing the love that you and Sarah shared multiplied by the love that you and Sarah gave Isabella on her own, was a phenomenal blessing. Ray, thank you for sharing your heart with all of us. Deepest prayers and condolences are given and sent to beloved Sarah, Isabella, Jeannie, Ray's parents, all of Ray's siblings, all of Ray's friends that he would talk about often, Ray's work friends, and anyone else who knew Ray. Praise the Lord for giving us Ray to learn from in his Godly deeds of unconditional love and kindness. I pray that all who knew Ray and truly loved him, can please come together to support the loved ones needing the support now and for the days, months, and years ahead. Sending the most heartfelt condolences imaginable and praying for peace and comfort to all who need it... Faithfully, Stephanie Tiedemann

“ Raymond Zedler was, as i knew him, a positive force in the life of everyone he met. He was a better man than I and it breaks my heart to see him go while I remain. I can't even find a way to talk to anyone about it; it just hurts. I've cherished every memory shared by his loved ones during this difficult time. Thank you and please know that your son and brother and lover was one of the best men I've ever known. His performance as a father-figure in a difficult situation was an inspiration to me and everyone who knew anything about it. My heart goes out to each and every one who loved him, as I did. I can only imagine, even amidst your loss, your pride at having been a part of a family that produced such a man.

“ I am so sorry for your loss and although I never met you guys, I was very close to Ray. Ray was one of the most amazing people I ever met and had a magnetic energy about him. My memories with Ray are ones I will never forget as I know you have a lifetime of memories you will hold dear to you of him. Ray always told me to never feel bad about feeling good and I believe he lived by that. He was always happy and always very proud of his work. Ray was extremely giving and never thought twice about it. "He would give the shirt off his back" is not just a phrase, I was with Ray when he did it one day. We went out to get something to eat and this man really liked his shirt, so right as we were walking out of the door; Ray pulled his shirt off and handed it to the man. The man was in shock and so was I as this man was about 5 times larger than Ray and that shirt would never fit him. I told Ray that the shirt would never fit the guy and he said "it's okay, he liked it..and what's a shirt? He will always remember that." He is probably right and I never forget that memory. I am so proud of Ray for being the man that he was and I hope that he is watching us from Heaven with peace in his heart. I pray for your family in this time of need that you feel Gods grace. Ray..I love you and will miss you. Thank you for the memories that will always put a smile on my face and thank you for showing me that life is short..you just have to wake up some mornings, cancel your well planned out day and say "Let's hit the beach." Rest In Peace Ray Christina

“ Dear Sarah and Isabella, What a guy....Lucky to have a girl like you Sarah. He really loved you, it was transforming, what a tragedy that it ended so abruptly. Ray was my longtime friend for many years in Sanford, since 2005 at the Blue Dahilia. One of my favorite memories was when he came by and we were both hungry and went to BB's on Sanford Ave...We both had fried porkchop and egg breakfast with a side of cornbeef hash...You would of thought two big guys like ourselves had never eaten. I'm sending his family "Monkey Paws" with three wishes. What a travesty. My deepest sympathies to both you and Bella. xo Stephen Nasta

“ To my dear, sweet daughter, Sarah... my amazing, beautiful Granddaughter, Isabella...and the wonderful family of Ray..... I loved Ray so very much and not having him with us is heartbreaking. His loss is unbearable to all of us. He loved my Sarah unconditionally and showed it with every fiber of his being. Ray and Sarah had the kind of love, that when they looked into each other's eyes...no one or nothing in the world existed. He loved Sarah with all his heart and showed it by his words, actions, writings and life. They had the kind of love we all dream of having, but will never be lucky enough to have. She is so broken at this time and forever will be. Ray was a wonderful Daddy to my sweet Isabella. He taught her how to love, to have beautiful behavior, his beautiful faith and what true happiness is...but most of all he taught both of my girls, how wonderful it is to have a very honorable and compassionate man in their lives. She loved him so very, very much...and as the days go by and Daddy doesn't come home...it gets harder and harder, for all of us. I will miss Ray for so many reasons. He loved me unconditionally also. I miss his infectious smile, his wonderful hugs, his beautiful prayers at each meal and bedtime that he shared...the long heart to heart talks we would have together. When I was visiting, I would take him to work sometimes, and we would sit in the car in front of the office and talk for 2 hours before he went in. He always called to tell me he was thinking of me and how much he loved me. But, most of all, I will miss the notes or letters he left on the table each morning to tell me special things - that he loved me, thanking me for coming to be with them, thanking me for giving him my girls, and how special I was to him. Ray was an unbelievable man. He was intelligent, full of life, compassionate, honorable, loving and capable beyond his years. Vincent and Mary Clare, You should be amazingly proud of the wonderful job you did, raising a man such as Ray. I will always miss him...I will always love him...and I am a better person for being very lucky to have had him in my life~ With Love, Jeannie Bethel

“ Ray, You are going to be so missed!!! You were an amazing, loving, kind and generous man. I feel so blessed that I got to spend time with you all as a family. Knowing your girls for 3 years, I never saw them as happy as they were than with you. Thank you for that, thank you for being a dad for little Bella! What a great time we all had bowling and the way your love for each other as a family was so apparent, beautiful and Godly! Thank you for showing that love is still possible to Sarah. Thank you for being you!!!! I am so glad that our time here on earth isn't that long so that you all will be together soon. God has a plan, we just have to trust Him and know that you will be with your love again! Sarah, I know that this is so hard for you right now. The pain, the empty feelings and the tears are overwhelming, but you are not alone. God is always there and will carry you through this time. Just keep your eye on him!! Please know that we all are here for you and Bella. I am just so glad that you had that time with Ray and that Bella got to know what a dad really is. Cherish those beautiful moments and that love that you all had for each other as a family. Keep it alive for little Bella so that she will always remember him. Take care of yourself and Bella, that is what Ray would have wanted!!!! Blessings and love!

“ To Sarah and Ray's Family My thoughts and prayers are with you. Sarah and Bella....you and Ray were my life line while I was there. I know the world seems to have stopped for you but remember those pep talks he gave when then seemed bad. ...Ray loved you and Bella so much. I saw it everytime he looked at you. Carry that with you and know that where he is there is no pain, only joy and happiness. To the Family, Ray was good friend...special and unique. I only had the honor of having him in my life for a brief time but his presence in it is irreplaceable. My heart is with you.

“ Sarah and Isabella I am so sorry for your loss, Ray was taken way to early. Isabella your daddy loved you so much and was so proud that you are his daughter. He loves you so much and will always be looking down on you, he will always be your angel. So if you get sad always know that he is watching over you. Sarah you and Ray had a love that most people dont ever get to experience, and you made him so happy. He is also watching over you in heaven and is so proud of how strong you are being for Isabella. I love you guys, and once again I am so sorry for your loss. May Ray rest in peace.
