“ My mother, Marian Jacobs, and I wish to extend our deepest sympathies to Sam, Paul and Joel. We remember you all as children living across the street from my grandmother, Mrs. Newcomb and as members of our church.

“ She was a wonderful friend to me. We spent many hours reading God's word and praying for family and friends. Her concern was always that each of us have a personal relationship with Jesus by inviting him into our lives. She had such joy in the presence of her Jesus. I thank God every day for her life.

“ My mother and I met Becky at the post office, and discovered we shared a love for animals. She was a good and honest person with an enthusiasm for life. We are sincerely sorry for Becky's illness and suffering, and for your loss of another sister. It is a difficult time even though we know she is now in a better place. Each of our loved ones we lose takes a piece of our heart, and in return leaves us with memories. You will always have and be part of each other. Surely God welcomed her home, filled her with peace, and she is resting in the arms of the angels. She will be profoundly missed, and remembered well by many. With heartfelt sympathy,

“ I worked with Rebekah at the Tavares Post Office. My wife went to Eustis H.S. with her. She had a very caring heart. I remember years ago there was a family that had lost all their Christmas gifts in a fire. Rebekah was concerned for the children and immediately wrote a check out for $100. Very caring. Our prayers are with Joel and the family.
