Obituary of REMA HERZBRUN

Rema Jackson Herzbrun passed away at home in Mount Dora, FL on Sunday, June 9. She is survived by her husband William, sons Lewis (Stacey) and Henry (Maria), grandchildren Jennifer, Dustin, and Reese, and her sister Connie Rapp.

Her life was one of caring for others both professionally and personally. She formed meaningful friendships wherever her travels brought her and Bill. Among her passions in life were family, travel, cooking, books, and throwing lively parties for her many dear friends.

Rema was a long term resident of Miami and a graduate of Miami Beach High School, received her Bachelors from the Univ of Miami, and a Masters Degree in Social Work. She served as the Assistant Director at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami for many years. Interment will be at the Mount Nebo Cemetery in Miami, FL. A memorial service and celebration of life will be held in Mount Dora, FL at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to a worthy charity of your choice.
