Obituary of Rhoderic Mills

Rhoderic G. Mills, 90, of Punta Gorda, FL, died Monday, October 21, 2013 at Life Care Center of Punta Gorda where he and his wife have resided since 2011.

Born June 10, 1923 in Munday, WV , Rhod was a WWII Veteran who entered Europe via Normandy and served in Patton's Army. After graduating from Ohio University on the GI Bill, he married Carolyn Conaway and moved to New Lexington, OH where he opened his own accounting business. In the 1950's, he was elected to two terms in the Ohio State Legislature and subsequently ran for Congress. Later Rhod served as U.S. Post Master of New Lexington, OH. After retirement, Rhod and his wife, Carolyn, moved to Leesburg, FL where they were active in many activities, both in the Leesburg Community and Pennbrooke Fairways.

Rhod is survived by his loving wife of 64 years, Carolyn; son, Ron (Tobi); brother, Ron Mills; and sister, Gladie Erdman.

He will be remembered for his civic involvement, serving on a number of board and advisory councils in Ohio and Florida.
