“ Dick was a loyal member of the widow & widowers social club. He Loved to take photographs of our members and was always there for our lunches & dinner get-togethers. Dick was loved and respected by all who got to know him. I was one of those people. We'll always remember the special cakes he made for our 'potluck' get-togethers. We will remember him with fondness. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family. God Bless!

“ I met Dick several years ago while visiting my sister at The Villages. We became friends through a love of nature and flowers. Dick was a kind and gentle soul. He had a sweet smile and I am glad I got to know him.

“ Death is the hardest thing we have to deal with in life. I know words can do little to take away the pain you are feeling, so may the God of comfort be with your family, helping you to cope. Lean on Him in the days to follow, 2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17 and read of his marvelous hope for those who have fallen asleep in death, John 11:41-44. Jesus performed this miracle as a preview for the future, John 5:21. My deepest sympathy.
