Obituary of Richard Ely

Richard W. Ely, 46, The Villages, FL died Monday, August 15, 2011. He was born in Havre De Grace, MD and moved to The Villages from Los Angeles, CA in 2009. He was Catholic by faith and a U.S. Army Veteran.

Richard was an aspiring actor performing in TV and commercials; movie productions with credits in J.A.G. and the movie "Click". He took pride in being a fine dining waiter in Los Angeles, CA. He enjoyed playing softball, soccer, tennis, golf and bowling. He enjoyed the arts, especially Shakespeare. His physical presence was in Florida, but his heart and mind remained with friends in California.

Survivors include his mother and stepfather Nancy and Tony Nett, The Villages; father and stepmother Clarence and Barbara Ely, Maryland; brother Andrew (Sue) Ely, The Villages; 2 sisters: Donna (Lonnie) Carter, Columbus, GA; and Denise (Carl) Hohenburger, Maryland. He was predeceased by his sister Cindy Bridwell.

“ With deepest sympathy. I will always think of Richard as the little boy who loved to walk the route with the mailman along 31st street. He usually had a big smile and he was so proud to be seen with the postman. Our prayers are with you all. Corinne and family Love from Corinne and family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Richard was a fine young man.....I loved his sense of humor and his little snicker. I first met him when he was two....and so enjoyed rolling a ball with him while he wore one of Grandpa's straw hats. I also took great enjoyment from playing tennis with him, even while pregnant. I will never forget him...ever. i loved you Richard.... may you rest in peace,
