“ *I remember uncle Richard would always spend time with all the kids in the family. He knew how to make us laugh no matter how we felt. I was born on his birthday and my middle name is Lee. My mom always reminded me I was named after a good man. I'm sorry it's been a long time since I've visited. Family should come first no matter how busy life is. Sending my love to the family. “ Dear Beth & Family, I am truly sorry for the loss of your father & grandfather. Beth, I know he was your "hero", esp. in his final moments, and how incredibly heart breaking this is for you. ~ I pray our Lord comforts you in your time of grief, & draws you ever closer to the knowledge that you have a heavenly FATHER who loves you very dearly. Please know I am at your disposal ~as always. My most sincere condolences to you & yours, Jodee

“ Fly above the clouds like the angel you are. I can still see your smile and hear you laughing. I never ever heard a negative word come out of you. You always gave and never received. You have always been there for my kids no matter what. You could find the positive in anything. I know your in a better place so fly high papa I love you.
