“ We met Uncle Dick and Aunt Skitch on a trip to Marshfield with Jack and Sally. They felt like family the minute we were introduced. Our friendship was much too short but will last forever. Uncle Dick will be greatly missed but we are sure he is busy making peanut brittle and warm sweet rolls for everyone he is with..... With deepest sympathy to Aunt Skitch and the Koenig family Much love, Mary and Herman Johnson

“ I had the pleasure of spending a lot of time with Uncle Dick on the road when we both worked for Red Star. There were a lot of stories and laughter between traveling, customer meetings and adult beverages in the evening. Dick taught me a lot about humility, honesty and simply keeping it real. He was family first but became a good and trusted friend. I will miss him greatly. Thoughts and prayers to Aunt Skitch, the boys and their families. Dick is basking in the glory of heaven with family and friends.

“ So very sorry to hear of Dick's passing. Many fond memories from the high school days and always looked forward to the class reunions and reminiscing about "the good ol' days." Deepest sympathy to Skitch and all the family.
