“ I was privileged to be one of Richard (Dick's) friends for the last 28 years. He was a very devoted and caring husband to his wife, Carol and I admired him for his excellent care of her through many years of her illness.

When my husband, Skip died eighteen years ago, he chose to be "my protector" and treated me like a "sister" until the day he died. He was truly a wonderful man and will be missed by all of his "golfing", Church, and other friends in the Villages.

“ Dick was our bowling buddy for years. He could always be counted on to be a team player and a good sport.

Most of all a loyal friend to many with a unique sense of humor that those close to him understood and appreciated.

His years of dedication to his loving wife, Carol, was worth everyone's admiration and granted him entry into God's special place in heaven for those that give so much to others.

We were blessed to have known him.
