“ Good Bye Rick, Too young to bid farewell.
Enjoyed working with you,playing(?)Golf with and Dale Moses. They were good, I simply went for the 19th hole. I'm sure there is a big hole in the hearts of his family and friends.
Question: were you just holding on 'til your birthday?

“ Well when Rick and i first met he told me he played softball which he truley enjoyed i asked Rick about it and he filled me in on all i had to do to be on a team . Rick told me how you have to do a lot of streaching or youll end up with injuries . Well me being me i get this i dont need streaching yep i got all kind of pulled muscles black and blues you name it. I would remind him every time i got a new injury that it was all his fault he would laugh and say nope im not taking the blame for that! Well i put in for a sub one game and got picked . I said iam playing this game for Rick and sure enough i blassed Rick a home run . That was for you my friend.
