“ Bob.... We are deeply saddened by your loss. Although we didn't know Rita all that long, we considered her a true friend....always open, extremely pleasant and fully accepting of us into her world. We can only imagine the grief and deep felt loss that you are now experiencing, and it is our sincere hope that you and your family will be blessed with the faith and emotional strength to sustain each other in overcoming this most traumatic of life's experiences. Warmest personal regards.

“ Dear Uncle Bob, Bruce, Becky and everyone else, We love you all so much. You are the best Uncle Bob that ever was and she was the ultimate Aunt Rita. I will never forget how kind you both were to me all of my life and how you let me be a real part of your family after my mom and dad were gone. I will never be able to tell you, really, how much I love all of you, and how much I love my Aunt Rita. Karla, with a K.
