“ I served with Robert as his Training & Administrative NCO. I have stood with him through thick and thin, shared confidences, fears, joys, and everything in between. He won my respect as a man. As compatriots, we shared anecdotes, stories, and friendship. He loved Baseball, CollegeFootball; especially his Buckeyes. His depth of love for Rebecca was one of a kind. His was a gentle soul, one that always tried to find resolution amidst conflict. He left his mark on many Soldiers, more than a few he could count as friends. The world is a bit darker for his passing, but it is also somewhat better for his having been here. His service to the Nation and the States of Ohio, New Jersey, and Florida were extremely notable. Al8ng with those others who knew him simply as "Bart," we raise a toast, sing a song in your honor, and wait until we meet again in the hills of Valhalla. HOOAH!
