Obituary of Robert Canavan

Robert A. Canavan, 83, passed away peacefully December 9th, 2014 in his sleep at his home in Apopka, Fl. He was born on August 1st, 1931 in Detroit, Michigan. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, veteran and teacher. He served in the United States Navy and taught in Michigan for 33 years. Robert was predeceased by his wife Coletta. Together they had 6 children, residing in Michigan, Patrick, Donna, Suzanne, Jeff, Debbie and Janice. Through his children, he became a proud grandfather to 8 grandchildren, also residing in Michigan.

In 1995 he moved to Florida and married Ruth Carter Cartrette in 1997. Through Ruth he became a stepfather to 6 girls. Rosemary, Marcia, Cheryl, Sandy, Susan and Terri; and a Grandfather to 13 Grandchildren.

Robert loved collecting antique car figurines and beautiful ceramic animals and birds. He was especially talented, and had a true passion in caring for plants and flowers. He was full of knowledge and anyone who had a conversation with him never left without learning something new. Robert will be truly missed by all of his friends and family.

Friends and Family are invited to attend a service in his memory at Apopka

Assembly Of God (951 N. Park Ave, Apopka, FL 32712) on Friday, December 12th 2014. The viewing will start at 4pm and the service at 5:00pm. Robert will then be flown to Michigan where he will be laid to rest.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of your dad (grandfather) Debra and family. I remember the fun times on Parklawn and camping at Sandy Pines. He was a very happy man and I remember how much fun he was with all of us kids hanging around the house. He will be missed by so many who love him. May God embrace all of you at this most difficult time.
