“ I'll miss you grandpa. I know that I will think of you every time I use a rubber band, or even look at my watch.

“ I knew the first time I met Bob that he was a hidden jewel. He was always considerate of me and accepted me into the family as Lorraine and I dated and married. He understood me as a man, a father and as Lorraine's husband. He was a man of example and principle. Although he was not outspoken in his feelings, I always felt his love. His kindness outshines his gruffness and will always be on my mind as I use several rubber bands to secure some small trinket, download music for Lorraine and Matthew, work on the computer or look in Lorraine's face. He was always helpful with his advice and I hope what I have learned from him will stay with me. Even if I apply what I have learned I will (as Lorraine often tells me) never be Bob Cappotto. I know that in my heart and mind he will always shine as a brilliant gem of a man.

“ Mom, You know how much I wish that I could be there with you . Our prayers are with you and for Bob. There are many memories that I recall from the first time that Bob came into our lives. He was a very generous man and a devoted husband and father to us-- your three girls. It was fate how he came into our lives--with a little help from Mike C..I thank God that he took care of you and gave you a good life and now I hope that God will keep him close to hom for eternity. Love, Kathy

“ Dear Mary, I am so very sorry to hear of your loss. I remember you telling us, at Carol's social, just how sick Bob has been, and didn't realize it would be his final few weeks. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Deepest regret Marie (linedancer)

“ I met Bob about 4 1/2 years ago when we moved into a home a few doors down the street from him and his wife Mary. Bob's wisdom on computers was a common interest for us, and he wa very helpful in sharing his knowledge with me. We shared music and any new progams we ran across. It seemed I was either walking down to his place or he to mine. He always joked around with Sue when he came to the house, and sometimes when he was leaving he would say "Well I better go now, so I can take my Mary to her line dancing". We enjoyed going out to early morning breakfasts and swapping stories. Sue and I thought an awful lot of Bob and he will be sorley missed. Our sympathy goes out to Mary and all her family...God Bless...Jim & Sue

“ Dear Mary, I am so sad to hear of Bob's passing. I know you have many fond, happy memories of him, some you've shared with me. Rejoice in the happy times. My prayers and thoughts are with you. Sorry I am not able to attend the funeral. I am heading home and will see you at Rodeo, or Friday dance when you are ready. Take care.

“ To Mary and the girls: I am sadden at the loss of Uncle Bob - uncle, father and husband. I am sorry we never got to FL to see him again. We spent lots of time together in the 50's and 60's. It was quite obvious that you lovely people filled out his life with the love he deserved. God bless you all and may Bob Cappotto rest in peace. The comments here brought back memories and also tears.
