“ Meredith, Doug ... I know you may not remember me, but my mom, Mary, worked for your dad for years in Orlando. I was on a sentimental journey today, being Mom's birthday, and sadly came across Robbie's obituary. I am SO very sorry for your loss. I hope the 2 of you are doing well. I'm sure your dad and Robbie are up there creating a ruckus!!! Much love and prayer for you both, and your families.

“ So many thanks for everyone here and away who has shown so much support for all of us after Robby's passing. We can never be prepared for the last goodbye and even now I still pick up the phone to call him. I forget he's not here to answer. Then I realize all over again that my "go to" support is gone. No matter the good nor bad of anyone, he was always there for me, at times pushing me away so I wouldn't rely on him so much... All to my benefit. He made me grow up, and helped me grow up and become who I am today. He had just the right mix of common sense, sarcastic humor, and real life knowledge to nudge me in the right directions. He had to grow up way too fast, and then he lived too fast. He lived the life he wanted and yet he loved deeply and with a heart of gold, even tho many would call him otherwise. Losing him has left a hole in my heart that has definitely aged me, and not a day or hour really goes by that I do not think about him. I really hope he's resting peacefully, but if I know my brother he would much rather be having a cocktail with us and playing with his grandbabies. Love you Miss you Rob. See you when I get there. Love, Sissy.
