Robert (Bob) W. Hornbuckle, 70, passed away unexpectedly in his home on Monday, October 5, 2015 in The Villages, FL. Bob was a Sargent in the U.S Marine Corps who served his country proudly during the Vietnam War. Bob and his wife Betsy raised their family in Chalfont, PA where he was always very involved in the community. Whether it be coaching his son's baseball teams or building a playground for the local school Bob was always available to lend a helping hand. Bob retired as a lineman from Philadelphia Electric Company before moving to Clermont, FL. in 2004. Bob finally found his paradise when moving to his playground known as The Villages, FL in 2006 where he was an avid golfer, dog whisperer, and handyman to all of his neighbors who soon became friends. Bob has always been an inspiration to his four boys and a proud "PapaBear". His smile and southern hospitality will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Bob is survived by his loving wife of 48 years Elizabeth (Healy) Hornbuckle. His four sons: Robert W. Hornbuckle Jr and his wife Colleen; their children

Alexis and Cole of Hoschton, GA. Bryan Hornbuckle of Sarasota, FL and his son Evan of Cape Coral, FL. Bradley Hornbuckle and his wife Lisa; their children Timothy, Nicholas, and Julie of Blandon, PA. “ I grew up with the Hornbuckles (The 6 B's) as my neighbors and friends. I wouldn't be surprised if I had spent more time in their home than my own. I thought of Mr. Hornbuckle as a second father to me. He was there to get my knee unstuck from the porch railing, he was there to patch me up when I fell out of a tree. He was there to knock some sense into me when I was being a stupid kid. He was there to help me become a man. I am forever indebted to him. I loved him.

“ Wayne (when I knew him), Jerry (his brother), and I were inseparable during our Milby High School years in Houston. We went our separate ways after that; Jerry to the Marines and I joined the USAF at 17 and stayed for 27 years. I'm very sorry I didn't get the chance to visit before he passed. Please accept my sincerest condolences and wishes for your grief to subside quickly. As long as I'm alive, he will always be alive in my memories.

“ I loved this man to death. He was my neighbor for years along side of his entire family which was my second home. The thing I remember most was the time I ran from the cops in my Dodge Dart and he yelled at me next day cuase he saw me do it. I know I was wrong...as I walked away pissed that he yelled at me...you then began laughing and he said" wow....that car is fast..that cop had no idea where you went" Loved that man...sorry he's gone :(

“ Betsy and family, we are very saddened to learn od Bob's passing. You were great neighbors and we always remember how when Steve was moving into my house, he hit the electric pole with the moving van and pulled the wires out of your house. Bob came running out hoping to catch the "offender", but said " oh it's Steve". Lucky for us he was a lineman. Our hearts go out to all of you, and we will pray your memories will comfort you during this very difficult time. Fondly, Steve and Kathy

“ Dad, I will miss you more than words but I am so truly blessed to have had you as my father in law. My children are blessed to have had you as their PAPA BEAR. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the boy that you raised who became my husband. He carries not only your face but your values, sense of humor, and love of life. Thank you for loving me as a daughter and dancing with me on random occasions. I'll wipe my tears and take comfort in knowing that you are smiling down on us all in heaven. With pride, respect and admiration, Darlin'
