

Robert Jay "Bob" Roth

September 11, 1948 - March 10, 2025

Robert Jay "Bob" Roth, 76, of The Villages, FL passed away on March 10, 2025. He was born in Bradenton, FL, developing a love for the beach and often returning to Anna Maria Island for family vacations. He retired from the food service industry, spending most of his sales career in south Florida. Bob was a football fan, cheering on the Miami Dolphins, Miami Hurricanes, and UCF Knights. In his retirement, he was active in The Villages sports, including water volleyball and pickleball. He was an avid blood donor, devoting many years to platelet donation.

Bob is survived by his children; Holly Stokes and husband Sam, Jay Roth and partner Danielle Cosentino, and Jenna Nobili and husband Joe; grandchildren Tyler Stokes and wife Nikki, Megan Grubb and husband Matthew, Ella Nobili, and Mia Nobili; great-granddaughter Amelia Stokes; sisters Pam Vescuso, Andrea Mathews, and Jill Rebholz; and former wives Linda Roth and Jill McDonough. He was preceded in death by his parents, Andrew and Billie Jean Roth, and sister, Gretchen Allen.

A private service was already held for the immediate family. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Manatee Community Foundation, Disaster Relief Fund. This fund supports recovery and rebuilding efforts for the Manatee County community, which was devastated by the 2024 hurricanes, giving back to Bob's hometown and beloved vacation spot. <https://manateecf.org>.

“ Bob was one of my dearest friends. We worked together for many years but more importantly He and his wife Linda were my daughter’s God Parents. I will always remember our vacations together, holidays spent together, and night outs together. He’s now with my wife Hope, and may they both RIP. ❤️❤️❤️
