“ I met Bob about a year ago when he hired me to clean his home. From the start, he made sure I felt comfortable and appreciated — that was just who Bob was. He had a natural way of making everyone around him feel at ease and valued.

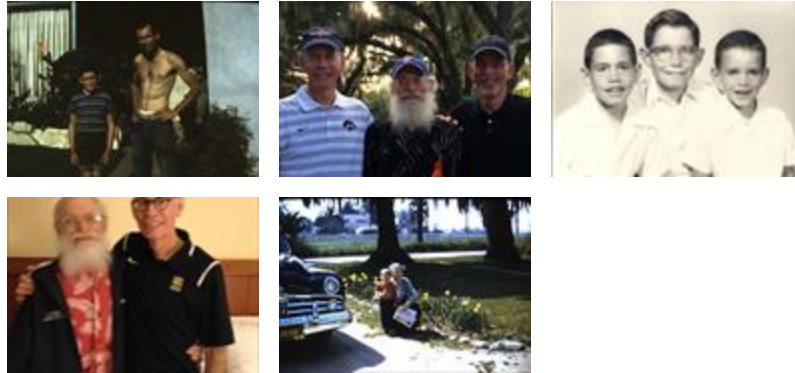

I always looked forward to our conversations. Bob shared wonderful stories, offered thoughtful advice, and always made me laugh. He was intelligent, kind, and deeply caring — the kind of person who left a lasting impression on everyone he met.

I feel grateful to have known Bob and to have called him a friend. He will be deeply missed, but his warmth and wisdom will stay with all of us who were lucky enough to know him.
