“ We are sorry to hear of the passing of Bob Lawless. Bob is a gentle man and a loving husband to his wife, Joan. Bob is a soft spoken man with a dry sense of humor and as I remember he always had a little smile on his face and spark in your eyes. He loved his family dearly and was very proud of all of his children. He also loved to play golf with Joan and they had fun playing with their friends and family. I look forward to seeing him again in Heaven when GOD takes me home. May GOD be with you in this time of sorrow.

“When a good man is hurt, all those who would be called good, must suffer with him.” Euripides. And as Bob was certainly a good man, all those who loved and cared for him while he was hurt and suffering have suffered as well. Now that Bob has been released from his pain, we must likewise release ours and rejoice and celebrate the loving memories of him and the man that he was. My deepest sympathies to all of Bob's family. You are all in my prayers now and forever. May God's blessings of love and spiritual healing be with you all. Jim Stallman

“ Dear Kim and family, My best to you and your family during this difficult time. My dad is an army vet from the Korean war era, and we lost my mother-in-law to Alzheimers in 1997. So I will be thinking of you all and wishing you peace--may you be comforted by the many sweet memories of your dad. Best, Betsy

“ To my dear Kim, I would like to take this time to provide condolences to you and your family.. Sounds like Bob lived a good life, and he loved living it. I lost my father twenty years ago last week, and it seems like yesterday that he passed.. The love of a DAD is special especially to his girls. I can see that he and your mom had strong family values, and set out to accomplish the American dream by creating you and (your siblings) if any, and having you guys in return "give-back" and promote the importance of mankind. May GOD bless and keep you during these trying times. Know that Bob is now resting in peace and it is my hope that he says hello to my parents who are already in heaven waiting on his arrival.. Much love, Phyllis P. Hayes, CHANCE Founder, UIC

“ Our heart aches, sadness sweeps over us, loneliness embraces us, and questions flood our mind, when we lose a loved one to the cold hands of death. But I do hope our Divine Father will give you and your family strength to cope and celebrate Robert's departure. Peace, perfect peace.
