“ Dad-you're at peace now. I'll cherish all the wonderful memories that we shared together. You took me to see my first major league ball game. Of course, it was the Cubs at Wrigley Field (they lost). Ahh, the memories: Cub Scout projects and little league, Ledyard Football and golf. We also share that special bond of serving our country. Even though I joined the Air Force, your pride was always apparent. I can still see your face beaming the day I graduated college and started Officer Training School. But my most cherished memory will be the last one. You took my hands in yours, as if you knew it would be the last time we would be together. Fair winds and following seas.
