

Robert Neeld

April 6, 1926 - May 9, 2010

Obituary of Robert Neeld

ROBERT A. NEELD, 84, of Lady Lake, Florida, died Sunday, May 9, 2010. He was born April 6, 1926 in Brooklyn, New York. He moved to The Villages from Levittown, Pennsylvania in 1987. He was of the Baptist faith. He was a retired letter carrier for the United States Postal Service.

He was a member of National letter carriers union Levittown, Pennsylvania, U.S. Navy WWII Veteran. Mr. Neeld, was the pilot of the Navy Transport Craft in the South Pacific that was hit by a Kamikazi airplane the day after the war ended. Many Navy and Marine, personnel were killed. He was an avid golfer and enjoyed his retired lifestyle in The Villages.

He is survived by:

Wife: Mary Neeld of The Villages, Florida

Sons: David Neeld of Boone, North Carolina

Jimmy Neeld of Perkasio, Pennsylvania

1 Grandson

Inurnment will be at Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, FL