“ PETRILAK FAMILY, I JUST WANTED TO EXPRESS MY SINCERE SYMPATHY ON BOB'S PASSING. FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS THAT I HAVE LIVE HERE I HAVE AND I HAVE ENJOYED PLAYING WEDNESDAY GOLF WITH BOB AND ,ALSO, HIS HUMOR. HIS DAUGHTER, LEANNE HAS HELPED ME GREATLY AROUND MY HOUSE. UNFORTUNATELY I HAVE HAD SOME HEALTH ISSUES AND HAVEN'T BEEN GOLFING FOR A MONTH. SO I DIDN'T HERE OF BOB'S SERVICE UNTIL TODAY, WEDNESDAY. OTHERWISE I WOULD HAVE BEEN AT THE SERVICE. SINCERELY, JERRY HILL

“ We are so sorry to hear of Bob's passing and that we cannot be with you for his Memorial. Bob was a lovely man: quiet, but friendly; computer savvy and so willing to share his knowledge with others; an avid golfer who happily put up with his duffer friends; and most of all, a man who loved his family and was loved by them. In short, a life well lived. With love and prayers, Joan and Owen

“ Dearest Jean, Dean, Bob, and I were just speaking of you all. Dean mentioned he did the 'Bob Petrilak business drink the other night, he had a Compari and Soda. Our memories are long and full right on down to Bob discussing with Gavin to go to West Point. I will never forget our visits with you both, on the Long Island Sound. You guys always came with your famous burgers and potato salad. One visit Bob insisted on sleeping in the hammocks with the full moon, remember that, so funny. You both hold a tremendous place in our hearts and in our childrens heart. We are in California right now, and I hope Jean we can talk in time - I will not call for awhile, I know how close your family is, and how they are with you now. I will send a letter because I am not sure you are doing emails right now. All my love, and I am so grateful you played such a role in our lives. I am so saddened by this loss for you and all of us. With tremendous Love , Deb and Bob Mohrmann I

“ Bob and I started to playing golf together for many years on Thursdays with our group. He was a great guy and I enjoyed his company. He loved to tell jokes and laugh and that I will remember Bob for. He also attended my wedding in 2010 at Laurel Manor and we had a great time. I am so sorry to hear about Bob's passing, he will be missed. Gino and Sandie
