“ Doris, Rog, Bruce, Leslie and Kim, Tracy allowed me the privilage of being apart of your family from afar. Your father was such a kind and wonderful man who filled Tracy's heart so full she could not help but smile everytime she spoke of him. And when I met him for myself, I completely understood why her heart beamed so bright at the mention of his name. He was such a wonderful man with an amazing energy that touched so many people ~ and always left a positive impression. My heart is with you as you move through this difficult time. Mandy

“ Bob, there are places in The Villages that will always have special meaning for me because we visited them together on our golf cart rides. The avenue of trees along the side of Saddlebrook golf course and the waterfront of Sumter Landing brought us closer to each other, and as your illness progressed, we learned to communicate with each other without using words. I miss you very much, and I'll always treasure the time we had together.

“ We will miss your presence at the dinner table. The four of us had some fabulous meals cooked up by Doris or Charlene. You were the first friends we had when we arrived here nine years ago and we are really missing you so much already.

“ Doris and family, We are so sorry to hear that Bob has passed away . We had so many good times together when they lived in Atlanta .Bob and Lee always beat Doris and I in gin rummy but we enjoyed going out to dinner with their winnings. We now know that he is at peace.

“ My sincere sympathies to all. I work with Leslie and she would always tell me about how her Mom and Dad were doing. I know this will be difficult for her and all of you. I see pictures of the family hanging in her cubicle all the time. You will all find comfort in the good memories you have of your Husband and Dad. My condolences to all, Dot Costantini Oxford, Ct

“ All I can say is that he was one of the finest men I ever knew, just a fun guy to be around and full of life. Sorry guys but he always told Leslie I was his favorite son-in-law! But knowing him, he probably said that to all his beautiful daughters. You couldn't ask for a better second Dad. I will miss you and your fatherly advise. Sleep tight sir till we meet again...

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to all of the Rogers family. Bob was an incredible man who always had a powerful presence whenever he was in the room. He was kind, giving, effervescent, and charismatic. Bob touched all of those whom he met and knew - I know I am a better person having known and spent time with him. I will never forget him.
