“ Uncle Robert was one of a kind, to say the least. He was humble, grateful, thankful, knew how to have fun, and loved to talk. He always had an idea to convey, no matter what the topic was about. He enjoyed playing a variety of games, and we certainly enjoyed playing them with him. Some would stretch on for hours, but he didn't mind. We would be laughing most of the time, listening to his stories of years gone by. We always looked forward to our visits with Uncle Robert and Aunt Sarah. Although he didn't really care for Indiana, he tortured himself several times to come up and spend time with friends and family. That's just the kind of man he was. He will surely be missed.

“ Bob was married over 50 years to the love of his life, Sarah Anne Harrison Snider. He had a “wicked” sense of humor, was talented at restoring houses, and selling them, and helped establish the food pantry at Lake Panasoffkee United Methodist Church. Having known him for over 50 years and being a part of the family, I will miss him dearly.
