

Robert Tarr

May 3, 2010

Obituary of Robert Tarr

Robert Dewey Tarr, 84, of Fruitland Park, Florida passed away on Monday May 3, 2010. Born in Cleveland, Ohio he was a plasterer and drywall contractor who lived and worked in Pennsylvania before moving to Fruitland Park, Florida in 1968. Mr. Tarr was catholic and was an Air Force veteran who served in WWII.

He is survived by his brother Ronald (Pat) Tarr, of Fruitland Park, Florida; sister Palla (John) Tautin of Conneautville, Pennsylvania; 3 nephews and 4 nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents Oliver and Helen Tarr.

Services

Services will be held in Pennsylvania at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Bob was a great guy. We'll miss the old curmudgeon.

The McAllisters - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ *Uncle Bobby was a colorful character and truly one of a kind... I have great memories of being on many a drywall/stucco job with him when tagging along with late grandfather, Bill Craine, my father, Darel, and Uncle Shawn... Our thoughts and prayers go out to all...
With Love, Chris and Layla Craine*

Chris & Layla Craine - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM