“ God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So he put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come With Me".

*With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away,
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.*

*It's lonesome here without you
We miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same
Since you went away.*

*Each time we see your picture
You seem to say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping,
We'll meet again someday".*

“ To my husband, I hope your seeing up there in heaven how much your missed and how much you are loved, by me, our children. And, now how many friends you had and all the visits to me and our children with cards, food, talks and stories about you, and how much everyone though of you in our community. I'm attending the Women for Hospice in Lake Co. luncheon and monies will be donated to Hospice in your name from your Pickleball Club. So thoughtful!
All my love, Ellen
