Obituary of Robert White

Robert (Bob) James White, 79, formerly of Chelmsford, MA and presently of The Villages, passed away October 24, 2009. Bob enjoyed a long career as a restaurateurs starting with his family's business and then as the chef/owner of Bob White's Princeton Lounge, a popular Massachusetts steak and lobster destination which featured live music for dining and dancing pleasure. Mr. White is survived by his loving wife, Patricia, three sons Robert (Elaine), Gary (Michael), Jeffrey (Fe), daughter Susan (Louie), stepson James Kelley (Leesa), and stepdaughter Patty Kelley, 11 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren, and a host of loving family members and friends. Mr. White is preceded in death by his mother, Susan, grandson Ian, and sister-in-law Joyce. Bob loved horse racing, golfing, sports, playing piano, and his life in The Villages. Going to Las Vegas, Saratoga or skiing with his beloved Pat and the kids were full of happy memories. Enjoying the beach and a huge lobster in Maine made Bar Harbor a regular vacation. Taking a golf cart ride to Sumter Landing to enjoy the music was a favorite past time. Bob was quick to smile and give a hug. He could polish off a couple pounds of grapes in a blink of an eye and then come looking for some cherries! Bob was loved and will be missed more than words can express. He will live on in our hearts as we feel the comfort of having him as our guardian angel. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 31 at 11 o'clock in the morning at Beyers Funeral

Home, Lady Lake, FL.

“ We have so many wonderful memories of going to the Princeton Lounge. The "Sizziling Sorloin," the friendly atmosphere, the great staff, and, of course, Bob & Pat greeting everyone. Bob created the perfect neighborhood restaurant - where "everyone knew your name." Thanks for the memories. We'll never forget Bob or Pat.

“ Pat, The friendship that you and Bob have given us is beyond words. Bob has always been a wonderful person. The happy memories of going out, eating in, golfing together or laughing the night away, will be with us forever. We wish you the strength to make it through this terrible time and hope that Bob is in a better place with no more pain. With our deepest sympathy. Your loving friends forever. Love Roger & Jacquie

“ Pat, You will never stop asking why would God take away someone as special as Bob. I've only heard good things about Bob. The few times I've been around him, he was nothing but kind. I hope you find the strength to keep you going. You know that Bob will be watching you with loving eyes, like you have always given to him. Love Cheryl

“ I will always remember Bob as I worked for him 3 years. Bob White's Princeton Lounge was the best. A light environment, and a laugh a minute. If ever there was a class guy, Bob was it. I could go on and on. Bob once spoke with me privately, as he knew at that time; I was dealing with some challenging issues in my life. He offered his ear and time should I ever need him. I will always remember Bob as a man among men, and a fine example of the human experience. Bob did more for me than I could ever begin to explain. I will miss Bob but never forget him. He will always be with me, as he will be with you. God Bless
