“ Aunt Lorraine, Dawn, Mary and Francis, I would never have thought that our family would be dealing with another loss of a husband and father this year. While the loss of my dad is still raw and not a day goes by that I do not think of him and would give anything to have him back, I have to remember that dad or Uncle Roger wouldn't want any of us to dwell on our sorrow but would want us to remember all the happy times we shared as a family. And that most of all to continue on with our dreams and to always keep them in our hearts. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. Love, Krissy

“ To my wonderful husband just a short note I will always remember that God meant the best for me so thankful you were able to go home this summer you got your coney dog with extra there were so many they keep falling off when you pick it up, also for all the time you and Debbie, Bruce had together she always made sure had a big breakfast she sure knows how to spoil you, then there was the big family gathering with your family and mine. Now God saw how sick you were and said come home my son your job here on earth is done.

“ Dear Lorrain: I can't even begin to tell you how sorry I am, I know that you must be going thru all kinds of emotions and sorrow. I didn't realize that he had gotten so bad & that he was in nursing care until your email about going to the wedding in Michigan. I know that if there was an easy way to express thoughts we would all be saying the same thing. But there isn't. Over the years we tend to lose touch with each other, because of life in general. I hear from my Roger almost every day about how I am going to be sorry one of these days for not staying in touch and keeping family close. And I know that he is right. We get so busy with our own lives and living in general that we forget about the people who are important to us. For that I owe you an apology. I wish that I had taken the time to know that my brother was so sick. All I can tell you is that I will always remember him as a big brother, who used to wrestle and play with me. Who pulled out my two front teeth, wrestling with me one day, who would give me rides on his scooter, take me ice skating to his friend's house, and scare me half to death at night because I wanted to read, while he laid in the next bed lightly knocking on the wall to make me think there was someone outside our window so that I would put my book away, Of going to the lake with Mom & Dad, playing in the water, just being kids. There are so many other memories of him and your family as I was growing up, that are just within my reach, but have dimmed with my age. I want you to know that if there is anything I can do to help, please let me know. I would give anything to be able to take your pain away, because I can only imagine what you're feeling. Please let your family know that our thoughts are with you, and we hope that you can find peace in your sorrow. Love Diane & Roger
