“ Dear Doreen, Larry, Denise, and families, What a sad day it was to hear of Roger passing. He was one of those people I could go to for advice, and truly know that he cared. I had wanted to get to Florida to visit one of these days, but will still try to see you, Doreen, when we get there. Roger, being my oldest cousin, knew my father, and shared his thoughts on him with me. That meant a lot. I wish I had had more time in my life to spend with Roger. The way he took a sincere interest in my life and family was a very endearing quality. He was one of those very special people that helped to fill the gap of not having a father if advice of a serious nature was needed. Even though you knew he was a great distance away, there was this comfort in knowing he was there if you needed him. I will miss him greatly. May God bless you, and take care of you during this very difficult time. With love and deep sincerity, Nancy
