“ Roger and Carroll worked together many years ago at Baas Auto Supply in Leesburg and enjoyed each others company. After work they would often go to shoot pool, drink a few beers, tell jokes and laugh like fools with Atwell and other friends. I met Roger several times and thought he was a really good, fun man. Carroll seldom gets out these days, but we both remember Roger with genuine fondness, and are really saddened by his passing. We both have some difficulty when folks younger than ourselves leave so soon. With the sincerest sense of loss. Carroll and Caryl
