“ My Condolence to Arlene and the Family. Ron will be sorely missed. He was a tremendous help to me, gave me sound real estate advise when I was just learning the business, and always helpful. I will miss his warm friendly way and his wonderful sense of humor.

“ Dear Arlene, Mike, Larry, Gary and Patricia and families. Words do not reflect our feelings of sympathy for each of you. Losing one's spouse is a shock, severe pain and a feeling of aloneness. I lost my "Kay" almost two years ago.....no way to escape the loneliness and sorrow we'll feel in such a loss. I found this quote this morning..."Death leaves a heartache no one can heal.....But, love leaves a "memory" that no one can steal." How true! I have known Ron since right after you moved to Orange Blossom Gardens in 1989. (Kay and I came in October, 1987.) We were both REALTORS, he with First Village Realty and I with SunCentral Realty. We both joined the Properties of the Villages on the same day, and later at Century 21 Hometowne Properties and finally Coldwell Banker-All Village Realty here in Lady Lake. Ron and I had many fond discussions of how "it used to be" in real estate, and about Ohio and Michigan where I was from. And, when we discussed our families, Ron beamed when he told about his sons and daughter. He was proud of each of you, and the grandchildren. He was totally devoted to you, Arlene, always reflecting his true love for you. Yes, Ron will be missed.....daily, hourly, every minute of the day, as it's been for me in my loss of my "Kay". People will tell you, the loss will pass. It doesn't...it becomes perhaps more bearable, more acceptable, but not entirely.....however, one thing that helps....I was told, and it works...keep talking to him, as I did to Kay. And, it's surprising, when I want to know where this or that is, after I've asked about it, I'm lead to it. Their image never leaves our minds, their presence and touch and warmth never leaves our heart....the the memories of the wonderful days, and years, linger on. Some to the point that I find my self smiling and sometimes laughing aloud at some things That will happen for you, Arlene, let it in..Accept it...and most of all...enjoy it. Life with Ron doesn't end here. His spirit, his presence will always be with you..each..No you can't touch him in reality, but mentally you can. And, you will recieve little answers, or unexpected gestures and a touch once in a while...just to let you know that it's alright. He'll want to give you the message that "I'm at peace in Heaven...with all that have passed before us...reunited with my loved ones who came before me. It's alright, you will mourn, but find happiness in each day. God has given you love and joy in everything. Accept that, welcome it. We'll be together in time..that is God's promise. And by the way, Jesus sends His Love." God Bless all of the Jones Family, and accept my sincerest condolences. Chuck Themm “ Grandpa will be missed by many, and will always be loved and thought about by all who knew him. It saddens me to know that we lost such a great man, and I'll never get to play "Twinkle twinkle little star" on my guitar for him again. I hope he rests in peace, and I know we will see each other again. I love you Papa.

“ I was so shocked to hear about Ron's passing. I will miss him and think about all the time we spent together as partners and friends. He was such a great guy. The best partner I could ever hope for. Ron was always so caring and supportive in all of our ventures. It was my most memorable and exciting time in business together with Ron. It is such a sad time, but I know I will see such a fine friend in heaven. Jesus be praised for giving us eternity together where we will see Ron again. God Bless Arlene and family, Jim Reuschling

“ August 8, 2011 Dear Family & Friends of Ron Jones This morning between 10:00 a.m. and Noon, five of Ron's friends, Fred, Elaine, Cindy Reger, Phil Cook & Phyllis Sharp, gathered around Fred's kitchen table and had our own memorial to Ron. It was so very hard for us not to be there with you. This is a very difficult loss for Fred, probably the hardest one I've seen him experience. Fred considered Ron to be his best friend. I am trying to stay with Fred more hours now. We are all in shock and very saddened by the loss of our dear friend. Ron was a great guy! Our thoughts are with you, Arlene & family. Sympathy to all, Phyllis Sharp
