“ I am sorry for your loss of Ron. I remember visiting your house in South East Florida as a child and playing with Ronnie and Susan. I loved looking at all your antiques. I enjoyed visiting you both in your home in the woods around 1975, but I don't remember where it was. My prayers are with you all.

“ I loved listening to Ron debate with Jane, Jules and my mom, Joann, back in the late 70's in Bulverde, Tx. Secretly, I always agreed with Ron.
Prayers to the Mancini family.
Love, David Rogers

“ I am so sorry for the passing of Ronald, my condolences to the Mancini's. I too know well the pain of losing a loved one. What brings me comfort and hope is God's promise at Revelation 21:4- "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Very soon death will be done away with and we will see our loved ones again. I hope this brings you hope and comfort during this difficult time.
