“Daddy, I miss you so much already, but I know you are not hurting anymore and it brings me comfort to know we will see each other again in heaven. You have been a wonderful father and a good man all around. Always ready to help others. I love you so much!”

“ What a wonderful man my husband was. He was my life and even though he suffered for the last ten years, He was still able to witness to others. We were one of the more fortunate couples that blended together as one through the years. I will miss him so, it'll be unbearable. After being divorced for seventeen years from my first husband and a bad marriage I found my true love in Ronnie and we have been married going on 36 years. He raised and was a good Father to my son and daughter and I raised one of his two sons. We went through a lot together with the strength and love that our Lord graciously gave us. Rest easy my Darling, it's time. Our Love is eternal and I will join you soon.

“ Cousin Ronnie - As a child you always made me smile and laugh. Last time we were able to meet in Texas, even as an adult, your effect was the same. Ronnie Olmstead - you added a smile to this world that will be missed. See you in Heaven!
