Obituary of Ronald Regan Sr.

Ronald Vincent Regan, Sr. 79, passed away Friday, February 28, 2014. He was born on July 29, 1934 in Brooklyn, NY. Ronald was a man of warm heart, loving, caring and generous. He put his family's needs above his, he would do anything to support his family, even if it meant sacrificing something on his own behalf. Ronald was a talented writer, radio and television host and all-around raconteur. He deeply affected everyone in his life and will be truly missed. Ronald lost his wife of 39 years, Barbara June Regan in 2005, after a long battle with cancer. Ronald is survived by a daughter, Sheryle Regan (Michael) Crowell, Hermiston, OR, two sons, Ronald Vincent (Megan) Regan, Jr., Fort Worth, TX and Patrick Harold (Amy) Regan, Jacksonville, FL, and 4 grandchildren, Ben, Amanda, Arabella, Anna and Sean. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 8:30 a.m., Tuesday, March 18, 2013 at St. Paul's Catholic Church, Leesburg, with Fr. John Giel, officiating. In lieu of flowers memorials may be directed to the American Heart Association, 237 East Marks Street, Orlando, FL 32603.

“ Ron was a good friend who I served with in the U.S. Air Force at Stewart AFB in Newburgh, NY from 1955 -1957. He chaired our reunion for the 330th and 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadrons in 1994 in Orlando, FL. We will certainly miss him. We offer his family our deepest sympathy at this time.
