“ This deeply saddens my heart, as for I have many many good memories with you, Ronnie. I remember when we would I'll be out on your farm and it would be cold and raining and everybody's having a good time. You would take your shoes off because your feet were wet and you told me that it is better to takeoff wet shoes than it is to keep them on that your feet would actually be warmer Without the water being on them you always treated everybody like they were somebody with a story to tell and a beer share. Then came time when everybody's having babies. I remember being in Mid delivery and here you come walking right through the room as I'm pushing my baby out lol she made her entrance and so did you. Lol those were good times and I never got to thank you for always being good to me. Thank you We Love you
