Obituary of Rose Boudreau

Rose Theresa Boudreau, 71, of Leesburg Florida, born June 4, 1944 to Albert and Rose Harrison, went home to be with the Lord and her son Paul John Boudreau Jr. on December 12, 2015, surrounded by loved ones. She is survived by her loving husband of 51 years, Paul J. Boudreau, retired Navy veteran; her brother, John and sister, Marie. She is a mother to two sons, Edward and John; two daughters, Suzanne and Michelle. She has 14 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces; nephews; cousins; great-nieces and great-nephews. She was a native of New York, moved here from Ohio, and enjoyed being a great neighbor. She loved being surrounded by family and friends, especially during the Holidays. She was preceded in death by her brother, Albert W. Harrison. Visitation will be Wednesday December 16, 2015 from 6:00 - 8:00 pm at the Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg. Funeral services will be held December 17, 2015 at St Paul's Catholic Church in Leesburg at 11:00 a.m.

“ We are so very sad to say good-bye to Aunt Rose. So many good memories.. I always loved how she was ready for a fun get-together and how much family and friends meant to her. Glad we were able to see her and Uncle Paul when they came to the Northwest. Love you all and praying for you in this time of sorrow.
