“ Thoughts and prayers to the family in their time of sorrow.

Birdie Mulvany - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear members of Rose's family, Though we didn't know her very well, we do know that Rose meant an awful lot to those who called her Mom, Grandma, friend and, especially, Wife. She was the center of a lot of lives, we are very sure. With you we grieve, with you we remember, and with you we will never forget Rose. May God continue to bless us richly, individually and as a family. Love, Kay & Doug Dohne

“ Our condolences to Hank, Susan, Arleen and all of Rose's close friends and extended family. We enjoyed seeing Rose when we visited Florida because she would candidly express what she thought about the big things happening in her family and the local community. She was thoughtful and caring and there was never a doubt that she loved her family dearly. She liked being included - and no doubt she will be missed and reminisced by her family for years to come.

“ Hank & Family, My condolences to you all. Your Rose was a very inquisitive person. I will hold her dear to my heart. I loved talking to her on a very regular basis when she called to order or renew her many books that she loved to read. She was like a Grandmother to me. She knew all about my family and told me so much about hers. She loved her family so much. I will miss you Rose :(

“ When I think of Rose I smile to myself, she always made me smile. I will miss your smiling face at family dinners, always lots of questions about everything and everyone and what a sense of humor, not everyone got it. We are all blessed to have had you in our lives. Heaven is lucky to have you, you are so missed.

“ There is a hole in our heart. I cannot imagine a day without At. Rose. When I was 5 I was in her wedding and once told her I was a flower girl and could not remember whose wedding. It was. She laughed! I will miss her. Her picture is on our dining table so we can see her everyday. She is forever in our thoughts. I will always love you!

“ We owe much to Hank and Rose for their friendship over the years. We were new comers to the area and we quickly became close friends. Rose was a lovely lady and she was able to have a quick response to my teasing. Even though we live many miles away Rose will be missed..
