“ Rosemarie collected angels but she truly was the angel in our family, even to those who didn't treat her so kind. She never forgot a birthday and she called almost everyone "honey". You are among the angels now, sweet Rosemarie. Rest in peace!

“ Rose Marie; what a beautiful person and sister. Always so thoughtful of others - even when she was in pain. There will definitely be a "hole" in the family, as well as in my heart.

“ I am just an "in-law", but LOVED Rose; she was kind and sweet to me when I re-entered the family with Tom. Her memory will be in my heart for the rest of my life and I rejoice that some day (Lord willing) I will see her again in Heaven. Love & Prayers to everyone else in the family in their grief.

“ Aunt Rose, You were the most thoughtful person, so caring, so genuine, so sweet. You sent me a birthday card, never missed a year, to each place I lived. I will miss that because you made me feel special. You are missed so much! You're an angel. With Love, Kara

“ The time I knew Rose she was such a loving and giving person. I wish I had known that she liked movies. I love movies but my husband doesn't like to go. I loved to walk Chester her dog for her when she became ill. I have gotten so attached to her mother Eva and think of her as a mom and Joan as a dear friend. I have met so many of her family and send my thoughts and prayers to all of them. She will be missed by all those who knew her.

“ Rose Marie.....when I look at all the pictures of you it takes me back to the times we have shared together. I will keep those memories in my heart forever, and will think of you often. You were a very loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother, sister, wife and daughter, aunt, and friend. My children Shawn, Emily and Justin dearly loved you as Jeff and I did. You were so loving and compassionate to everyone, and I will miss you greatly! Your sister and friend.....Franny

“ Aunt Rosie was loved by everyone around her, and just by looking at her you could tell that she was the sweetest person that you would ever lay eyes on. She was a very special person and horrible things like that shouldnt happen to anybody, but especially not someone as nice as her.

“ My dearest sister, Rose Marie, We spent almost 69 years together here on earth, a seemingly long time, but in actuality oh, so short. We attended the same schools and the same church most of our lives. We were employed by many of the same business. We cared for each others' children while the other one worked. We shared many of the same friends, and the same 'best' friend for many years. We supported each other during difficult times and enjoyed each other during good times. We laughed together and we cried together. We often looked to one another for advice, consolation, or just to have someone to confide in. We shared vacations/outings together. We even shared some of the same vices over the years. But above all we shared a sisterly love, and I miss you terribly. Until we come together again, Rosie, I know that we are together in spirit.. And even though I grieve your physical absence here, I rejoice in your being chosen to be with your Maker, Our Lord Jesus Christ. May we share eternity through our love and prayers. Your loving sister, Joan

“ Dear Rose Marie, We shared much in our 68 years together here---- laughter & tears, pain & glory, good & not-so-good times. We loved & cared for each other's children while the other worked. We shared many of the same friends, and 'best' friend. Most of all we shared a sisterly love that will last forever. You are with me now in spirit & even though I grieve your physical absence, I know we will live forever in God's grace. I miss you terribly! Your loving sister, Joan
