“ Grandma, I am so happy that my last visit with you was with my sister because I always had such happy memories of us visiting in Crystal Lake. You were always there for us. Getting to know you as I grew into an adult has been a gift that I won't forget. You shared so many personal triumphs and tragedies, it always let me know that I am not alone. And finally, your faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ has always been an inspiration and I know you are with him now. I love you and I will see you again. Heather “ Grandma, Thank you for always being there for me from home to Iraq and I will never forget the love you shared with me. Thank you for living your life to the fullest, your the standard to how we all should live our lives. I wish your great grand daughter McKayla, could have known you the way we all did. I love you, and you will always be in my heart.
