“ My Nana, I've always wished for more time spent with you, our late night heart to hearts over a cup of tea, and all of your stories and words of wisdom. I Love You loads! You are an amazing woman and I am so grateful to be your granddaughter. Your guidance in life has taught me many great lessons, you once told me that I could't run away from my problems and you were so right, you've always reminded me even when you weren't around to act as a lady at all costs, and scrub my knees and elbows (lol). Nana I have you to thank for my strength in life and I will cherish all that you have given me and all that I have learned from you forever, and hope that one day I will be as great as a woman from which I evolved from Nana, you!!! Love you Nan xoxoxo Love your GrandBABY Lindsey Rosexoxo

“ Although I did not have the privilege to meet Mrs. Randazzo, I know she was a courageous lady, and loving mother, because I see these gifts in her daughter, Linda, our good friend. May God lift her up on eagle's wings, make her shine like the dawn, and grant her peace. With heartfelt sympathy and prayers for God's comfort to the Randazzo family. Alice

“ I spent some time at the Randazzo home with Linda. Her father and Rosina are wonderful parents. Rosina was a wonderful hostess and I felt so at home when I was there with them. She was a wonderful Mom to Linda and we will all miss her.
