Tribute Wall

“ Nettie, the love that you and Roy had for each other was electrifying. Anyone could see it when they come in contact with you two. Your love was visible to even a blind person -- if one couldn't see it; they could surely feel it! Even near death, Roy heard you say something about "want a cell phone". He said I don't want her to want for anything. If you want it you go get it. Davis and I are thankful for our recent visit with you both. That was a good day for Roy -- and for you too because he was awake and talking. We love you our special cousin! Davis & JoAnn Wilson P.S. I posted some photos that I took in February of 2012. I hope you get them. Keep looking up and holding on to God's promise.... "Ill never leave you nor forsake you".
