Obituary of ROY KELLAM

Kellam, Roy E., 75, went home to the Lord on Sunday, March 28, 2010. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Stallworth Kellam of 55 years, daughters, Deborah and husband Byron of Broad Creek, NC, Barbara of Raleigh, NC and Kay and husband Will of West Melbourne, FL, seven grandchildren: Erin, Zachary, Laura, Tyler, Sara, Tracess and Brittany; three great grandchildren: Tyler, Hunter and Woody; brother, Earl and numerous nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews. Roy was a Paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne and a Mason. He was a retired U.S. Civil Servant and OCPS employee. In addition to working he also tuned pianos for over 30 years. Mostly we remember Roy for his love of music. He enjoyed entertaining all with his singing and guitar playing. He shared his gift with many local nursing homes and retirement communities. He enjoyed traveling with his best friends, Willie and Diana Moss of Orlando, visiting 49 of the 50 states and Mexico and Canada. Roy was an avid outdoorsman who loved boating, fishing, camping and hunting. He was a member of the First Baptist Church, Astor and also attended Broad Creek UMC during his seasonal visits to the N.C. coast

“ Dottie and I were shocked and saddened to hear of Roy's passing. Over the past 42 years we have shared many "musical" moments. Eddy Arnold . . . WOW! Floyd Cramer, Chet Atkins and Jerry Reed . . . WOW-ee! Roy knew the country and the gospel. And one night . . . we came back to Astor from a restaurant in Sanford in Roy's boat during a terrific storm -- Roy knew how to "navigate" in the dark driving rain when visability was "zero!" One of the most interesting people I've known in my 79 years. We will miss him.
