“ I consider myself fortunate to have known Roy. I first met him in 1982 in Texas. From that point on he was a motivating factor in my life to learn clay modeling and having been able to learn the art from him, I learned clay modeling from a master. Thank you Roy. My sympathies to Roy's family and he will be missed by all who knew him. Sincerely, Brett S. Herndon

“ I'm so sad to hear about your father's passing Roy. He was a legend in our business. A name I heard in the begining of my career. I was fortunate to have worked worked with him even if it was only once. I was still some what wet behind the ears and moonlighting at JCI when I met him. I can still recall after all these years how impressed I was by your father's skill and I will always remember his words of encouragement that he gave me even though I was screwing-up the job. He Will Be Missed.
