Obituary of Roy Winn

Roy Eldon Winn went to heaven September 19, 2009 with his wife and daughter by his side at his home. He was born in Libertyville, Illinois on December 23, 1928 as the second son of Pearl and Dan Winn. He was predeceased by brother Charles Winn and sister Nancy Everett and has one surviving sister, Patricia Hall of Davie, FL. Roy served in the Air Force during the Korean War. He married Barbara Banning in 1958. They shared 51 years in marriage with Roy serving God as a diligent caregiver to Barbara for the past 20 years honoring his wedding vows and commitment to Christ. Roy and Barb had two daughters, Robin Winn Colborne of Leesburg, FL and Bonnie Winn Nimmons of Argyle, TX who chose two faithful men as husbands, Kevin Colborne and Keith Nimmons. Roy's legacy is his four loving grandchildren, Kelsey Nimmons, Kara Joy Colborne, Joshua Nimmons, and Kasey Colborne.

Roy was an optician in Leesburg for many years. He enjoyed spending time with family, telling jokes, golf, cheering for the Gators, and reaching out to those in need. Roy was a charter member of New Life Presbyterian Church and focused many years serving God helping New Life grow. His sense of humor and positive attitude made his life's challenges bearable.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Mr. Winn's passing. For years David and I amired and respected his devotion to Mrs. Winn, all the while keeping a cheerful attitude. We enjoyed his jokes, and teasing whenever we saw him. He exemplified a true child of God. With loving thoughts and prayers to his family who have been so blessed to have him, David & Tawnee Jenzen

“ Dear Barbara: I was away at Seminary when I received word of Roy's passing. As you know, we served together at New Life and I always appreciated his deep faith and his love for his entire family! May you find solace in knowing that "Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King!" Blessings also to Robin and Kevin. With love, MARK
