“ To the love of my life for 45 years there are so many memories of you But I think the best ones were when I told you I was pregnant with Stevie the glow in your face and the second was when I told you I was pregnant with Shawn you had that same glow in your face. You met and knew so many people through out your life I don't know of anyone you met that didn't like you. you were such a good husband dad and grandfather . you loved all of us in such a special way . Dalton made a special picture for you, We all love and miss you with all our hearts you were taken from us way to fast

“ My condolences to the family. I would love to share some bible scriptures that can bring you comfort at this time and a wonderful hope of seeing your love one again. Acts 24:15" There is going to be a resurrection ". 2 Corinthians 1:3,4" Comfort when loved ones die" Hebrews 2:15" Freedom from morbid fear of death" John 5:28,29" A real hope of being reunited with your dead loved ones". God is the Creator of life. The Bible calls Jehovah God "the source of life" (Psalms 36:9; Acts 17:24,25) The One who gave life to all living creatures is certainly capable of restoring life to someone who has died. Jehovah hates death, he views it as an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) He has a longing to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He yearns to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again-Job 14:14,15.

Sincerely, Liz Wall
