“ Despite the miles between us, times like this make me feel so close to my family. From the oceans to the mountains, your children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren can rely on each other for comfort, can reminisce, and can share our love for my grandfather. I am proud to be your granddaughter. I love you and miss you, Poppop.

“ It breaks my heart that I cannot be with you now. How blessed we are to be such a close family and I find so much peace in those bonds. Bonds that have started with you 57 years ago. I am so grateful for the time that my children got to know their Great Poppop and for the memories that I personally will always hold onto. Poppop will forever shine through the roses in my yard and the blue polished stone I wear around my neck. He will be a part of every Rummy Cube and Baseball game and with the knowledge he imparted, I will never be lost. I love you

“ I'm so sorry to hear this sad news. I hadn't spoken with Russ in quite a while, but I will remember him as a happy person with a great sense of humor.

“ Helen, You and your family are in my prayers during this difficult time. Russ will surely be missed around here at Highland Lakes. He was a great man with a wealth of knowledge. We both know that he is in a better place now and not suffering.... let that bring you peace of mind. Always remember the loving, fun, times you all had together. God bless you and your family.
